Democratic Party Chairman Joseph Spicuzzo announced today that Middlesex County's Democratic delegation to the New Jersey General Assembly unanimously supports John Wisniewski to become the next Speaker of the General Assembly.

"In January, New Jersey will need a new Assembly Speaker who will effectively represent the middle class, the middle ground, as well as the middle of our State," Chairman Spicuzzo declared as he announced his Assembly delegation's unified backing of Assemblyman Wisniewski to be the next Assembly Speaker. "No one will do a better job of bringing people together for the good of New Jersey than Middlesex County's own Assemblyman John Wisniewski."

The following statements were issued in conjunction with the Chairman's announcement:

"As a husband and a father of three, John Wisniewski knows the challenges faced by New Jersey's working families during these difficult economic times for our country."

– Assemblyman Joseph V. Egan, District 17

"New Jersey needs a leader in the Assembly who will stand up for all of us, because he is one of us. John Wisniewski is that kind of leader, that kind of person and that kind of friend to the people of Middlesex County. He's got my support for Speaker."
